“Super duper Spring Extravaganza”

Despite previous concerns raised another ill timed absentee auction one week prior to BBR's established calendar slot gave many collectors another worry, for the hobby itself generally.

However, everyone truly seemed to rally forth in their masses resulting in the biggest visitor attendance for over 4 years, and in all respects made this an absolutely super duper Spring Extravaganza w/e. Perhaps the Tour de Yorkshire, the 4 day Beer Festival (across on the railway) & 4 days of Beam Engine Tours, contributed?

I think everyone was amazed, surprised, pleased - nay breathed a sigh of relief - and I must express my grateful thanks to stallholders who took the time afterwards reporting back how amazingly busy they were & had a top w/e.

This sale lives in the shadow of the pending 27th UK SummerNational, but it still managed to present a very fine broad spread across all areas, evidencing overall generally extremely buoyant, positive results, much with 'a punch', whilst the main antiques trade continues to struggle.

SUNDAY I must congratulate stallholders for impeccable co-operation in the set up/ unloading, non opening of the big green doors & appointing their own banksmen for departure before 4pm! The Council watched us closely & I cannot find any fault with how the stallholders obeyed my requests - cheers!

the Market to enable us to get stallholders in swiftly without any problems. Everything ran like clockwork - fingers crossed for July?

Early sales I'm told were "best of the year," "had my best Spring show ever," and so on. Diana Snowden scooted around both days catching reports of latest finds, bargain buys etc - all will be revealed in BBR 152 out a few weeks before the SummerNational.

The Charlie Macleod Meat Pastes Part 2 Absentee Auction will be done as a separate results sheet.

Herewith highlights, prices with add ons:

Pot lids: Best in this area was Charlies 'Woods/ Worcester/ Hunting Paste', despite minor damaged managed £590, his repaired 'Swallow/ Peterborough/ Shaving Cream' £470, & an Atkinson marbled 'Oriental/ Toothpaste' £400.

Minerals: Holding back some 'stars' for Summer the exceptional 'Roome/ Dailington' blue hammy (Darlington misspelled) went way past AB's conservative "come buy me" est..... won for £1,535 and remaining "oop North".

Inks: The Doulton artware teakettle was the best here, from AB's Collection, chased to £555.

Kitchenalia/ Misc: Two Abbey Mustards in one sale must be a first? The largest £470, the smaller £470, each with some damage. C Johnston/ Dundee/ Ammonia £470.

Breweriana & whiskiana: The unique (?) Dewars Sheffield Wednesday footie team pictorial jug had many chasers... £590, just pipped by the spectacularly sharply transferred Slater Rodgers stoneware water jug @ £660. A slightly flawed Buchanan House of Commons led the whisky jugs £495, a slightly imperfect Bush Blend (handle base hairline) just behind @ £460, then a Doulton Bellarmine motto style £440. All just pipped by the artware Doulton dispenser @ £530.

Poisons/ meds: Impressive 3 submarines line up (all Simon Bennett repaired), lge to sml size: £470, £520, £520.

Advertising: Pickfords thin tin sign, removal lorry pict. £380 - but there's a very good spread for July already!

Early glass: Dated squat mallet 'ROBT/ CROSS/ 1736' rounded off a spirited sale @ £1,060 to a European collector.

Reported cat. amendments: Lot 53: front lip repair. 199: Old bottom of handle hairline. Lots 292, 293 & 294. Incorrect images to the words - corrected on thesaleroom.com & sold in their words order.

"Saturday sale offerings just get better & better!"

Saturday sales have progressed and improved in leaps and bounds over the last year following the move across to the new purpose built BBR saleroom, by the red phone box. Less bulk boxes of so called "mullock" are progressively being replaced with more and more single item lots, many of considerable merit. This can consist of good, highly varied, stall stock, or be private collection shelf items - regional pieces to 'classic' UK, affordable, collectables.

More absentee bids continue to emphasise the strength within the offering, and importance of, the so called 'Saturday 500+ lot Unreserved Auctions' which again was streamed live on the BBR website for everyone to watch in if unable to attend in person.

Bargains interspersed with some high fliers kept up with AB's "heady pace" - 500 lots in just over 4 hours. A delightful stoneware musical hot water bottle £65, Glengelt whisky jug £95, Rob Roy whisky jug £118, whilst the pipe groups continue to show a remarkable strength - lot 374 "Box of assorted pipes, 140+, £472! Download the catalogue for free to compare results with descriptions: onlinebbbr.com

Certainly the October sale looks set to be another fabulous humdinger, supported with a constant arrival of 'fresh to market' stock - this sale including some Charlie Macleod material & items from a long time Scottish collector, deceased - more next time from both.

BBR is already looking at suitable dates to slot in extra sales which would inevitably mean away from the quarterly w/e established dates. Watch this space.
