"An amazingly robust auction throughout?"

Undoubtedly as fine a two day auction spread, in virtually every collecting field, as we have previously offered @ an Autumn Extravaganza, combined to make this, without a shadow of a doubt, amongst the most successful non SummerNational week-ends - attendance up about 8%. Saturday realisations are overleaf this side we cover the Sunday spread which throughout seemed to be amazingly robust across the board. Whilst the mighty fine (& rare) young girl pictorial Burgoyne Burbidges pink background pot lid led the way - days top price £2,595.... with the last 3 black glass lots just behind. Minerals and creams were perhaps the most buoyant and both unpredictable areas - where regional rarities not seen for many moons shone and surprised. Garth's initial main offering lured folk along to fight for his many years chasing - nice one Garth - you had immense good taste!

Pot lids: Burgoyne Burbidges (girl pict.) £2,595. Sandringham green print (27) £660. John Gosnell blue bear £@70. Performing Bear (rest'd) £270.
