A wonderful "wasp waisted" w/e!"

Spring had certainly sprung by the time this quarterly BBR week-end event loomed large upon sleepy old Elsecar, but the weather continues to be somewhat unpredictable. However, it proved more than kind - mostly glorious sunshine throughout, but a cool wind once away from shade. "Classic AB shorts 'n t shirt weather", said one visitor?

The new plastic matting on the field opposite the Heritage Centre enabled the return of off road vehicle parking but was actually little used by visitors - many said they were unaware it was free - so there to use from now on!

Saturdays varied 500+ lot Unreserved Auction spread proved generally pretty solid throughout, with a few bargains slipping thro' for good measure. Enough for everyone to have a shot at.

I made a concerted effort again to reduce lot numbers in the Sunday catalogue, all concluded before 1.45pm. Several stallholders said they very much appreciated this concept. Roving reporter Diana Snowden collected the £50 free draw right at the end!

Sunday dawned - a few 'bleary eyes' from Saturday night party goers, some never learn? Actual entry numbers (EE & standard) were up on this time last years.

A few highlight realisations listed below, all with add ons. In truth the entire week-end event was 'Top of the pops' - in more ways than one:

Pot lids: The yellow & bronze background Napoleon Price was tops here @ £520, and then the large Lorimers £380 and the large Sanoline (girls with fans) £295.

Minerals: The tan salt glaze 'G M Hopkins' hammy shot to £1,300 the Bathgate... Calcutta' £825. Shimmins patent codd £555, Soyers Nectar (no diamond reg & a burst air bubble to end, same price as the 6oz amber Roath codd.

G.b's: All white 'Thomas Blackett/ Byker' reached a respectable £470 despite a few flakes/ chips. Best Scottish performer was the 'Falkirk/ Star' @ £190.

Kitchenalia: Tops was always going to be the fabulous 'New Milk' pail, never seen this design prior, made its worth £1,060? Doulton artware water filter £330. Parnall & Sons shop display stand £260. Plenty of good creams for July?

Whisky & Beer: The large size Greybeard/ Islay Blend (greyhound pictorial) attracted many bids - secured for £1,300. A previously unrecorded salt glaze (with red jacket) Johnnie Walker figural decanter trotted to a new home for £610 (damaged hat perhaps effecting its final price?). Best water jug was the small McNish's/ Doctors/ Special Whisky £710.

Early stoneware: This section was described by one visitor as "the lull before the storm" - suggesting the very best of Dr Dudley Davidsons Collection was already lining up (drawing admiring glances) for July SummerNational offering. Here though 2 ex Dennis Northmore pieces proved the biggest hitters: small 'J A Christian' lozenge shaped flask £590, attractively glazed, small size, 'C Seller/ ... York' £540. DD's top price was a small Kishere marked jug (rare) £310.

Inks: Teakettles continue to fly - the frog topped 6 sided hand decorated pottery example made £590 and the dark aqua glass example (lot 192) £495.

Black glass: The hefty squat 'Chas/ Guy/ 1774' cylinder was highest here @ £910, followed by the neck restored shaft and globe £495.

Cures/ Poisons/ Pharmacy: Mini green Warners £825, 2 pint amber 3 cities £435. But..... the crowds gathered at the end of the day for the concluding lot - the stunning, complete with stopper, 4oz Eclipse Patent wasp waist. Several book bidders "had a go" but stood little chance against three room contenders, secured on behalf of a Southern collector, thus staying in the country - £8,500.

Cat. amendments (hammer prices in italics on these results):

80. 2 lids damaged. 84. Lip repair. 100. Front hairline. 171. 2 base chips. 212. Neck flaw from L side of seal. 215. Broken area to rear reglued. 252. Base crack.

"Another wowser spread, & so much more!"

Nick Chipchase said "I secured several items from the Saturday auction which is turning into quite a spree. Alan surges on through 500 plus lots with barely a whimper. His school master days have stood him in good stead. Quality is improving here and prices holding up well. I was fearful for my own late entry lots near the end but they held up well - setting me up (cash wise) for the weekend."

This pre Show day auction has definitely grown & grown in stature & importance. A huge array of goods, many which years ago would have slipped into the Sunday sale.
