11. 75	40. 35	73. 30	107. 90	It's hard to constantly improve year after year Nationas. After 24 previous successes all seems to run smoothly, on the surface - unfortunately necessitating AB is virtually stuck in the office most of the time. It gets no easier, glitches sorted, problems ironed out, that's what we do. Camping uptake was better than expected, moreso given the late-in-the-day announcement, meant more in the village Friday night to add to the build up/ atmosphere. Saturdays show ran smoothly, much of the time sun shining, after Friday nights downpour! Competitions, main hall slightly down, up in new green cabinets, but as ever superb. Big thanks to contributors, but we need more if the Show is to continue in its present form. Hall closed 4pm, then prepare for the Saturday evening Market social - great night all round, brilliant buffet (thanks to fiance Lynn, Hilary Gosling & Nina Jenner), quiz went well (top £250 prize not won, next year £260!) followed by simply fantastic 'craic' - mixing with folk from worldwide, for me topped by the presence of Australias Terry & Anne Opie (& everyone else of course!). Sunday Car Boot... then the 'closing ceremony' - the auction (@ lot 25, emotionally, reminisced & thanked etc). Done & dusted in less than 2 hours, ending with 4 'star' lots. Below some observations/ realisations (inc add ons):
12. 130	41. 10	74. 20	108. 160	Pot lids: The superb Melton Mowbray Pratt style plaque went under estimate at £4,960 outshining the rest of the lids on offer, but the fine large size Kranol did about right @ £610.
