Another New 'On the Road' Auction Adds An Extra Facet To The Shows Success

BBR's inaugural 'On the Road' auction @ the light, airy & spacious Kent venue proved just another 'cherry' on the already successful cake recipe. I use the 'cooking analogy as Scouts, mums & friends muck in providing a range of fresh, well priced, refreshments & drinks - muchly appreciated by everyone. Lots of bargains with a few solid performers thrown in for good measure making for an overall pleased crowd.

The mallet, Britannia pictorial pot lid & the mini early Bellarmine mini jug duo each just topped £100 per lot, the ceramic 'Stephens' door pull & Prices Patent Candle both making over £75.

We adopted a bit of a new system (to help us) but the volunteers threw themselves into the task in hand of 'running' with secured lots to the winners - big thanks ter them, otherwise we cudna do it!

Nice to welcome Martin Jones along for the pre Show curry night out - full report (& pics) in the pre SummerNational BBR.

Lots of positives all round, & we're already planning next years selection - indeed - took a couple of entries there and then for 2015!
