A tentative toe in the water...

This was our first sale online with easyLiveAuction.com so we put a slightly tentative toe in the water presenting a smaller than usual gathering to see how it all panned out/ how well we would cope. In reality there was no need for any caution - the full week previewing seemed a popular introduction, several coming back a couple of times to relook & saleday saw a good crowd of eager bargain hunters, most with an eye on one or more particular lots in this highly eclectic spread. Herewith the auction results, only items illustrated have added commission charges to give exact total.
