Fabulous sunny Autumn weather defo assisted to lure along a lively & high spirited attendance - good numbers over both days for our Autumn 'party'... I reckon Blg 21 was the fullest we've ever had for a Saturday Entirely Unreserved auction... followed (hot on the heels) next day by the with a managably sized auction, concluded in record time? Whilst there were no exceptional/ big four figure fliers rarities in all fields were 'chased/ exceeding AB's conservative estimates. Quality continues to shine & be in demand, unlike so many established Antiques categories. Top of the pots was the fabulous Aberdeen 'Auld Lang Syne' all white flagon shaped whisky jug @ £1,300 despite discovery of a lip repair before, just after the stunning Airdrie 'Coal Master' sprigged flagon @ £1,025, whilst the tasty 'Potted Bloaters' pot lid, lot 14, just topped £700 (all with add ons).
